 - c. All PARTIES, including the WORKER, TRANSFERRING EMPLOYER, RECEIVING EMPLOYER and GOVERNMENT AGENT in Canada must agree to the transfer, and must be documents and signed by all applicable PARTIES.
3. At the time of transfer, the TRANSFERRING EMPLOYER will provide the RECEIVING EMPLOYER with an accurate record of working hours accumulated to date, earnings, and deductions up to the date of transfer, and clearly state which deductions, if any, may still be recovered from the WORKER. The RECEIVING EMPLOYER may continue to deduct expenses associated with the program, starting from the aggregate amount deducted by the FIRST EMPLOYER, without exceeding the amounts indicated in Section 8, clause 5.
4. The RECEIVING EMPLOYER is responsible for arranging transportation to the new work location at no cost to the WORKER.
5. The RECEIVING EMPLOYER shall give the WORKER a trial period of seven (7) actual working days from the date of his arrival at the place of employment. Effective the eighth working day, such a WORKER shall be deemed to be a named WORKER. Further, following completion of the trial period, the RECEIVING EMPLOYER agrees to pay the travel agent in advance the cost of one-way air transportation of the WORKER's return trip as between Kingston, Jamaica and Canada.
6. Following completion of the trial period of employment by the WORKER, the EMPLOYER, after consultation with the GOVERNMENT AGENT, shall be entitled to prematurely cease the WORKER's employment for reasons of non-compliance, refusal to work, or any other sufficient reason. Failing any attempts to transfer the WORKER to an alternative EMPLOYER and at the WORKER's request to return home, the cost of the WORKER's return trip between Kingston, Jamaica and Canada shall be paid by the RECEIVING EMPLOYER.

7. In the case of a double transfer, the ORIGINAL EMPLOYER will be responsible for paying the cost of the WORKER's return airfare from Canada to Kingston, Jamaica.
8. If a TRANSFERRED WORKER is not suitable to perform the duties assigned by the RECEIVING EMPLOYER within the seven-day trial period, the RECEIVING EMPLOYER shall return the WORKER to the TRANSFERRING EMPLOYER and the TRANSFERRING EMPLOYER will be responsible for the cost of the WORKER's return trip as between Kingston, Jamaica and Canada.
9. Following completion of the seven-day trial period and no later than ten (10) days of employment, the RECEIVING EMPLOYER will provide the GOVERNMENT AGENT with written confirmation of the name(s), identity code(s), the actual date of transfer, and anticipated end date of employment of all TRANSFERRED WORKERS. EMPLOYERS in Ontario, Quebec, and Atlantic Canada will provide this information to their designated third party.
10. The GOVERNMENT AGENT is responsible for notifying the supplementary medical insuring company of the WORKER's TRANSFER.

16. MISCELLANEOUS

1. The WORKER and the EMPLOYER agree that personal information may be released to the GOVERNMENT AGENT, to the Foreign Agricultural Resource Management Services (FARMS), to the Fondation des entreprises en recrutement de main-d'oeuvre agricole étrangère (FERME), to the Western Agriculture Labour Initiative (WALI) and to the Insurance Company designated by the GOVERNMENT AGENT to facilitate the operation of the SAWP.
2. In the event of a fire, the EMPLOYER, the GOVERNMENT AGENT and the WORKER, will bear the replacement cost of the WORKER's personal property up to a maximum of $650.00 each.
3. This contract may be executed in any number of counterparts, in the language of the signatory's choice, with the same effect as if all PARTIES signed the same document. All counterparts shall be construed together and shall constitute one and the same contract.
4. The EMPLOYER, the GOVERNMENT AGENT, and the WORKER agree that in the event that this contract is frustrated in its entirety through no fault of any party (e.g. due to an act of nature), any party may terminate this contract.
5. The PARTIES agree that no term or condition of this contract shall be superseded, suspended, modified or otherwise amended, in any way, without the express written permission of the GOVERNMENT OF CANADA, the GOVERNMENT AGENT, the EMPLOYER and the WORKER.
6. The PARTIES agree that this contract is complete and absolute and that any purported addendums to this contract that do not adhere to Section 16, clause 5, may result in being found non-compliant with the SAWP.

In witness whereof the PARTIES state they have either read or had explained to them and agreed with all the terms and conditions stipulated in the present contract.
